

FITNESS CLUB MEMBERSHIP

We have a corporate membership with GoodLife Fitness, the contract runs from April 1 – March 31 and your fees are paid by payroll deduction. If you wish to join you must complete the application form provided by this office.

Your spouse or a dependent may receive the same membership rate as you but only if you are also a member. Reimbursement for your spouse is provided only if they are eligible to be covered under your Extended Health and Dental Plan.

You may receive reimbursement for a portion of the membership fee at the end of the contract year in which you participate:

- with a minimum of 60 visits you can expect $150.00
- with 120 visits or more $300.00
- not more than one visit per day is counted toward your reimbursement.
- if your membership with GoodLife Fitness began later than April 1, these rates will be prorated based on your joining date

If you have membership at a gym other than GoodLife your reimbursement will be based on the twelve months of your membership and we will also need a receipt showing your membership fees along with a printout of your attendance. Not more than one visit per day is counted toward your reimbursement.

Your health is important to us. You will reap the benefits of your active lifestyle.
